Of course, the technology moves beyond the NFL and top-level football. EA's technology will be implemented into the game and be available to players of all sorts of sports. The granular feedback generated from these actions will be "augmented with updated physics feedback systems," too. 2. The Finesse of Soccer Soccer is the perfect sport to get at the heart of the gameplay for FIFA 22. EA creates "an improved cover flow system, new and improved animation, and new sensations including interaction between players and teammates, coordination between the ball and player, improved ball physics and new visual effects," reads the FIFA wiki. 3. The World's Most-Played Game FIFA as an annual franchise was released in the summer of 2001. We've reached the 22nd iteration of the series, which has sold over 110 million units worldwide. That's more than most Hollywood blockbusters each year! The most recent game, FIFA 19, sold over 11 million units in its first week. 4. The World's Most-Played Player FIFA 17 introduced Lionel Messi, who was the most-viewed player on the PlayStation 4. Having to say "You're player of the year on the PS4" to your friends was an epic experience at the time. In FIFA 22, we've got Lionel Messi again, along with Neymar and Cristiano Ronaldo. The goal is to lead all players to more video views than any other player each week. 5. No More Charades The game presents the hardest-to-beat leaderboards of all time, as well as the addition of the "Challenge Ribbons," which require players to get the highest score in the League, Cups, and Challenges. There's a new leaderboard for the top-ranked player in the World Cup, and there will be more challenges throughout the year. Players will also be able to play with or against friends on new Challenges. 6. The Ability to Play a Character on the Pitch The new character creation mode allows you to play as a real-life football player in-game, including David Alaba, Jadon Sancho, and Andre Ayew. The ability to customize your character will be available to all players. 7. Improved Player Profiles Player profiles in FIFA 17 used facial and body scans from real-life players

Features Key:

- FIFA 22 introduces a number of new features for the most authentic FIFA gameplay to date, including the returns of Under 10s, Pop-Up shots, the return of the Formation Bar and many more. FIFA Ultimate Team gameplay has been improved too and include fully licensed European kits for both male and female players, including Brazil 2014 (certified by FIFA) kits and the latest Nike F.C. kits.
- FIFA 22 introduces new control scheme options for the first time in a FIFA game. Player passes have been adjusted, both to reduce the distance you need to press a pass button in order to initiate passes, with improved aiming. We have also adjusted the End Steering button that will now allow you to finely control your passes.
- FIFA 22 introduces "HyperMotion Technology," which uses motion capture data collected from 22 real-life players playing a complete, high-intensity football match in motion capture suits. The data collected from player movements, tackles, aerial duels and on-ball actions is used to power FIFA 22 gameplay.
- In Career Mode, you can now set the formation to the customised 4-2-3-1 shape.
- In Career Mode, you can now progress more effectively from your youth teams to the senior game.
- In Career Mode, you can now play domestic cup, Charity and international matches.
- In Career Mode, you can now play player trading.
- In GameManager Mode, you can choose between play as a manager or a player.
- In GameManager Mode, you can now design your own team's kit.
- FIFA Ultimate Team has now been even more authentic. Players statistics have been updated to reflect new and improved performance data, ensuring players' full and accurate international game records.
- As part of our FIFA Ultimate Team updates, legendary players from a number of leagues have been brought in to create fantasy teams. The updated data has also now made the time attack mode more realistic and help provide definitive goal-scorers.
